POWER OUTAGE

safety Tips

Use flashlights for lighting, NOT candles or open flames.

If the power outage is caused by inclement weather, remain indoors until it subsides.

If you must go outside, proceed with caution, protect yourself from falling debris, and beware of downed or damaged power lines.

Evacuate the building only if necessary. Generally and especially during poor weather, it is safest to remain indoors.